GLOBAL HEALTH DAY

NOVEMBER 19, 2015 | MAYO AUDITORIUM

11:00 TO 12:30 KEYNOTE & PANEL DISCUSSION:
HEALTH WITHOUT BOUNDARIES: GLOBAL HEALTH AND INTER-PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION
12:30 TO 1:30 NETWORKING RECEPTION AND POSTER SESSION

MODERATOR
Debra Olson, is the Executive Director of the Center for Global Health and Social Responsibility facilitating global engagement across the University of Minnesota Academic Health Center and Associate Dean for Global Health at the School of Public Health and is responsible for developing strategic partnerships for the delivery of lifelong learning opportunities for interdisciplinary health professional students and the public health practice community.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
Julio Frenk, a noted leader in global public health and a renowned scholar and academic, was named the sixth president of the University of Miami in April 2015. He assumed his leadership post on August 16, 2015. Prior to joining the University of Miami, Dr. Frenk was Dean of the Faculty at the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health since January 2009. While at Harvard, he was also the T & G Angelopoulos Professor of Public Health and International Development, a joint appointment with the Harvard Kennedy School of Government.

PANELISTS
Sarah Cusick, is an Assistant Professor at the Medical School in the Division of Global Pediatrics. Her research focuses on international maternal and child nutrition, the interaction between nutritional deficiencies and infectious disease, and the effect of these interactions on child health and long-term cognitive development.

Andres Perez, is a veterinarian and PhD in epidemiology, originally from Argentina. He has supervised or is supervising more than 30 graduate students and post docs, has published more than 110 papers in peer-reviewed journals, and has led a number of activities related with quantitative epidemiology of food animal diseases in more than 20 countries. He is currently, an Associate Professor and Chair for Global Animal Health and Food Safety at the University of Minnesota.

Shegitu Kebede, is the founder and the president of the non-profit Women at the Well, that serves children and adults who are refugees. She has received an award for her record of service to the community from the McKnight Foundation and national recognition in Washington, D.C. from Bridging Refugee Youth and Children’s services. Shegitu Kebede has been featured in Minnesota History Center, and is a mother, grandmother, published author, motivation speaker, activist and volunteer.

Barbara Brandt, serves as the associate vice president for education within the University of Minnesota’s Academic Health Center, and is responsible for the University’s 1Health initiative to build the interprofessional practice skills of students and faculty in a broad range of health professions. Dr. Brandt is also the director of the National Center for Interprofessional Practice and Education, a public-private partnership and cooperative agreement with the Health Resources and Services Administration, established in 2012.
SPECIAL THANKS!

POSTER COMPETITION JUDGES
Karl Self, Associate Professor, Director, Division of Dental Therapy, Department of Primary Dental Care, School of Dentistry

Claudia Munoz-Zanzi, Associate Professor, Epidemiology & Community Health, School of Public Health

John Song, Associate Professor, Center for Bioethics, Division of General Internal Medicine, Medical School.

PHOTO CONTEST JUDGES
Dean John Finnegan, School of Public Health

Katie Nelson, Photographer and Journalist, School of Public Health Alum

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA
Center for Global Health and Social Responsibility